Registration Terms

Cancellation and Refund Policy

Delegates unable to attend the CUA 2025 Annual Meeting will be entitled to a full refund (less 25% for administrative charges), provided that a written request is received by the CUA Corporate Office (registration@cuu.org) by June 10, 2025. The organizers regret that refunds will not be considered for requests received after this date. All approved refunds will be issued after the Annual Meeting.

Taxes

The following tax will be added to the registration fee: 13% GST.

International Delegates

International delegates wishing to attend the CUA Annual Meeting are responsible for making their own travel and accommodation arrangements, for obtaining visas and for covering costs such as registration fees and incidentals. The CUA does not provide letters of invitation. To assist with securing travel visas, the CUA will provide receipts, as confirmation of registration, upon payment of fees. International delegates wishing to attend the conference must register online and pay by credit card ONLY.

The Government of Canada has introduced a new entry requirement for those travelling to or through Canada who are not Canadian or American citizens, or permanent residents of Canada. You may require an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA). For more information, consult <http://canada.ca/eta> to determine if this requirement applies to you.

Registration & General Assistance

For additional questions or inquiries on the Registration process, please contact us via email at registration@cua.org

Please take some time to read our Registration Terms and Conditions document (available in our Registration page) where you will find useful information about general registration information and travel to Victoria.
